

SESSIONS FOR SCHOOLS

Hong Kong Central Library, Causeway Bay
7-11 March 2005

Jeremy Strong

7, 9-11 March

Jeremy Strong, is one of Britain's bestselling and best-loved children's authors. The Guardian calls him the "King of Comedy".

These sessions will be best for students ages 7-11, or Primary 2-6.

Deborah Ellis

11 March

Deborah Ellis is one of Canada's most distinguished writers for older children, ages 10 to about 14. Her novels The Breadwinner and Parvana's Journey are critically-acclaimed and sensitive stories of life under the Taliban in Afghanistan. They can therefore support history, geography and religious studies as well English and literacy.

Deborah Ellis's visit is funded in part by Northwest Airlines and the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators.

TICKET REQUEST DEADLINE IS 10 DECEMBER 2004*

Please complete the attached forms and return them to the Festival.

23A, Success Commercial Building, 245-251 Hennessy Road, Wanchai — fax 2598-6604

Full details and forms are also on the Festival website: www.festival.org.hk

Further enquiries may be made by e-mail to schools@festival.org.hk or by telephone to Carmen Ho at Paddyfield, 2511-4224

* Tickets requests will be accepted after the deadline, but those received on or before 10 December will be filled first.

AWESOME AUTHORS and POETRY LIVE! sessions for senior secondary school students will be announced separately.

venue sponsor

organised in cooperation with

