

5. Draw Your Own Kids Book

I wrote 365 stories in 365 days as an ode to my baby daughter, and kids everywhere. Some for very young readers, some for kids, others for tweens. Something for everyone!

Almost all the stories came with art direction, in case any of the readers wanted to draw their own children's book.

<https://cielo365stories.com/>

These are perfect for kids to draw in class, or at home with their parents. And they are all free.

Here I have picked a link to just one of MANY of the stories that best fit young'uns. Monster Pants. Simple, fun, easy to draw. But, please, feel free to go to the Story Archives and browse for a story that suits you!

<https://cielo365stories.com/2018/11/08/day-88-monster-pants/>